Tynwald Ceremony

TYNWALD CEREMONY

The general arrangements in connection with the Tynwald Ceremony will be as follows:

1. Tynwald to be held at St John's on 6th July will be the occasion for promulgating the Acts passed during the last session and for transacting other business.
2. Ushers will be on duty to escort ticket holders to their seats, both in the Royal Chapel and on the Grandstands.
3. There will be limited accommodation on the Grandstands lining the processional route for members of the public holding tickets. Ticket holders should be in their places by 10.15 am.
4. A service will be held in the Royal Chapel of St John the Baptist at 11 am. Those taking part in the proceedings will have the use of the Robing Room, adjoining the Royal Chapel, to robe. The clergy will attend in Choir Dress.
5. Tickets for reserved seats in the Royal Chapel will be numbered and the numbers on the tickets will correspond with the numbers on the pews. Ticket-holders should be in their places not later than 10.30 am.
6. Music before the Service will be played by Mr Derek Crellin, Organist of the Royal Chapel of St John the Baptist. Music after the service will be played by Mr Bernard Clarke.
7. The singing on the Grandstand during the Service will be led by the Manx Festival Chorus conducted by Dr John Bethell MBE D Mus and those seated on the Grandstand are asked to stand for the hymns and anthem.
8. The processions to the Royal Chapel and to Tynwald Hill will be marshalled by the Clerk of Tynwald. All participants in the processions are invited to wear Bollan Bane.

9. Detachments from the Royal British Legion, Royal British Legion (Women's Section), Joint Ex-Services Association, Isle of Man Coastguard, Isle of Man Prison Service, Civil Defence, Sea Cadet Corps, Army Cadet Force, Air Training Corps, St John Ambulance Senior Cadets, Scouts and Guides, will line the pathway between Tynwald Hill and the Chapel with the visiting Guard of Honour and Military Band.
10. Those presenting Petitions for Redress of Grievance are requested to assemble by the War Memorial as the processions reach the Hill. At the appropriate point they will then be escorted by the ushers to the foot of the Hill to present their petitions. After doing so, petitioners will be escorted round the foot of the north side of the Hill.

The public will not be permitted to proceed within the lines formed by the above contingents.

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS

09.45 am. The start of the ceremonial occasion when the Guard of Honour, Military Band, the Standard Bearers and all participating local units, organisations and Secondary School students congregate under the direction of the Military Liaison Officer on the car park in St John's School in St John's village.

10.10 am. The school students, carrying their school banners and in their school groups, process to Tynwald Green led by the Onchan Silver Band and the Manx Flag. They move past the saluting dais in front of the President of Tynwald and the Minister for Education. They then move across Tynwald Green to take their places on the grandstand for the duration of the proceedings.

10.20 am. The Military Band, leading the Guard of Honour, the Standard Bearers and all the local units and organisations march on. The Guard of Honour and Military Band take up their positions on Tynwald Green, the Standard Bearers take up their positions at the War Memorial and detachments from local units, Isle of Man Coastguard, Isle of Man Prison Service, Civil Defence, Sea Cadet Corps, Army Cadet Force, Air Training Corps, St John Ambulance Senior Cadets, Scouts and Guides form up at the east end of the Processional Way from the War Memorial to the West Door of the Royal Chapel. The Trumpeters move into position on the wall opposite the War Memorial.

10.37 am. His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor Vice Admiral Sir Paul Haddacks arrives. As he steps from his car, the Trumpeters sound a fanfare and he is received by the Military Liaison Officer and two Captains of the Parishes. (In the event of bad weather the cars will first stop at the Lych Gate, Lady Haddacks and guests will alight and proceed straight into the Royal Chapel. His Excellency will continue with the normal programme).

10.42 am. His Excellency mounts the saluting dais for a fly past of RAF aircraft. A Royal Salute follows and His Excellency, accompanied by the Military Liaison Officer, inspects the Guard of Honour and the front rank of the Military Band. His Excellency, accompanied by the Military Liaison Officer, then moves to the National War Memorial where His Excellency places a wreath. The Trumpeters play 'Last Post' followed by a one minute silence and 'Reveille'. His Excellency preceded by two Police Sergeants, the Trumpeters and the Manx Flag then process to the Robing Room accompanied by Lady Haddacks and guests. Lady Haddacks and guests enter the Royal Chapel at the West Door.

11.00 am. As the Service in the Royal Chapel begins, the Military Band, Guard of Honour and Standard Bearers move to their positions on the west end of the Processional Way.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Bidding

The Rural Dean says:

On this Tynwald Day we meet together to give thanks to God for the many benefits we have received during the past year, to pray for our Island and its Government in the coming year and to dedicate ourselves anew to the service of God and the people of our Island.

Hymn

1. It is God who holds the nations in the hollow of his hand;
It is God whose light is shining in the darkness of the land;
It is God who builds the city on the rock and not on sand:
may the living God be praised!

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

May the living God be praised!

2. It is God whose purpose summons us to use the present hour;
who recalls us to our senses when a nation's life turns sour;
in the discipline of freedom we shall know his saving power;
may the living God be praised!
3. When a thankful nation, looking back, has cause to celebrate;
those who win our admiration by their service to the state;
when self-giving is a measure of the greatness of the great;
may the living God be praised!
4. God reminds us every sunrise that the world is ours on lease-for the sake of life tomorrow may our love for it increase;
may all peoples live together, share its riches, be at peace;
may the living God be praised!

Act of Penitence

All sit or kneel

The Chaplain of the House of Keys says:

Recognising that we all fall short of what God expects from us and of what we are capable, let us ask for his forgiveness and his help for the future.

All

Most merciful God,
Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
we confess that we have sinned in thought,
word and deed.

We have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly,
love mercy, and walk humbly with you, our God.

Amen.

The Chief Messenger Mr. D. Brown carries the Acts for Promulgation to the Hill

Prayer

The Chaplain of the House of Keys says:

(Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed: kindle, we pray thee, in the hearts of all people, the true love of peace; and guide with thy pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquillity thy Kingdom may go forward till the earth is filled with the knowledge of thy love. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.)

The First Deemster Promulgating the Laws

The Grace

The Chaplain of the House of Keys says:

(The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.)

An Act of Thanksgiving

The Rural Dean says:

As an act of thanksgiving we sing the morning psalm.

All stand

Venite Exultemus Domino (Psalm 95)

O come, let us sing unto the Lord:

let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God:
and a great king above all gods.
In his hand are all the corners of the earth:
and the strength of the hills is his also.
The sea is his and he made it:
and his hands prepared the dry land.
O come, let us worship and fall down:
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
For he is the Lord our God:
and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Today if ye will hear his voice,
harden not your hearts:
as in the provocation,
and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

When your fathers tempted me:
proved me and saw my works.
Forty years long was I grieved with this generation and said:
It is a people that do err in their hearts,
for they have not known my ways.
Unto whom I swear in my wrath:
that they should not enter into my rest.
Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be:
world without end.
Amen.

The Lesson St Mark 12, vs. 28-34

Read by the Chaplain of the House of Keys:

And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, Which commandment is the most important of all?

Jesus answered, The most important is, Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.

The second is this: You shall love your neighbour as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said to him,

You are right, teacher. You have truly said that he is one, and there is no other beside him. And to love him with all the heart and with all understanding and with all strength, and to love one's neighbour as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And after that no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Hymn

The verses are sung by Mandy Griffin and the refrain by the whole congregation.

1. Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with thee.
Thou changest not, thy compassions,
they fail not;
As thou hast been thou for ever wilt be.

Chorus

Great is thy faithfulness, great is thy faithfulness!

*Morning by morning new mercies I see;
All I have needed thy hand hath provided
Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!*

2. Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses
above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.
3. Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thy own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

An Act of Affirmation of Faith

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

An Act of Dedication

The Rural Dean: Let us pray:

The Rural Dean: Guide the leaders of the nations into the ways of peace and justice.

All: Hear us, good Lord.

The Rural Dean: Guard and strengthen your servant Elizabeth our Queen, Lord of Mann, and all the members of the Royal Family, that they may put their trust in you, and seek your honour and glory.

All: Hear us, good Lord.

The Rural Dean: Endue the High Court of Tynwald here assembled with wisdom and understanding that through them we might be wisely and justly governed.

All: Hear us, good Lord.

The Rural Dean: Bless those who administer the law, and all who hold public office, that they may uphold justice, honesty and truth.

All: Hear us, good Lord.

The Rural Dean: Give us a broader vision of the needs of the whole world, a deeper compassion to fill these needs, and a desire to uphold the rights and freedoms of all your children regardless of creed or race.

All: Hear us, good Lord.

The Rural Dean: Almighty God our heavenly Father, we praise thy holy name for our Island

heritage and we beseech thee with thy favour to behold all who dwell here. May thy blessing rest upon all the labours of our minds and hands. Keep we pray thee in thine almighty care all who go down to the sea in ships and all who travel by land and air. Help us to order with grace and dignity our common life in town and sheading that we may live and our children grow in health and godliness. May thy grace be with all who visit our shores that they may find recreation of body and soul and with us may glorify thee, the giver of all good things; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn

1. O Worship the King, all glorious above;
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
Our shield and defender, the ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise.
2. O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.
3. The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty! Thy power hath founded of old,
Hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.
4. O measureless might! Ineffable love!
While angels delight to hymn thee above,

The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to thy praise. Amen.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O land of our birth,
O gem of God's earth,
O Island so strong and so fair;
Built firm as Barrool,
Thy throne of Home Rule
Makes us free as thy sweet mountain air.

All sit. Members of the Congregation are requested not to leave their seats until invited to do so by the Ushers.

Before the processions begin Lady Haddacks and the Archbishop of York leave the Royal Chapel immediately after the choir and proceed down the Processional Way to seats in an enclosure at the foot of Tynwald Hill. The official guests and congregation will follow in pew by pew order.

THE PROCESSIONS TO TYNWALD HILL

The Deputy Chief Constable calls out members of each procession to the Hill which depart from the West Door. The first procession to Tynwald Hill is formed in the following order:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (from the West Door)
- The Coroners
- The Senior Salvation Army Officer
- The Ministers of the Free Churches
- The Chairman of the Isle of Man District of the Methodist Church
- The Roman Catholic Dean
- The Beneficed Clergy
- The Rural Dean
- The Vicar General

- The Archdeacon
- The Chairmen of the Town and Village Commissioners
- The Mayor of Douglas
- The Chief Registrar
- A Representative of the Commission of the Peace
- The Captains of the Parishes
- Yn Lhaihder
- The High Bailiff
- The Chief Secretary
- The Chief Constable

The second procession follows immediately on the first procession without any space intervening and is formed in the following order with the Deputy Chief Constable being the last to leave the Chapel:

- Two Messengers of the House of Keys
- The Chaplain of the House of Keys
- The Clerk of Tynwald, Secretary of the House of Keys and Counsel to the Speaker
- The Members of the House of Keys
- The Chief Minister
- The Speaker of the House of Keys
- One Messenger of the House of Keys
- The Clerk of the Legislative Council
- The Members of the Legislative Council
- The Attorney General
- The Deputy Deemster
- The Second Deemster
- The First Deemster and Clerk of the Rolls
- The Lord Bishop
- Two Gardyn Coadee
- One Messenger of the Legislative Council
- The President of Tynwald
- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (from the West Door)
- Trumpeters (from the West Door)
- The Sword of State
- His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor
- The Private Secretary to the Lieutenant Governor
- The Surgeon to the Household
- The Manx Flag (joins at the West Door, after the Surgeon of the Household, and precedes the President of Tynwald to the foot of the Hill)

Before the processions reach the War

The Guard of Honour is provided by the Duke of Lancaster Regiment.

Memorial, they halt and take up an alignment on either side of the path facing inwards so as to enable His Excellency to pass through and be the first to step on to Tynwald Hill.

The trumpeters sound a fanfare as His Excellency leaves the Royal Chapel and then precede the Sword Bearer on the Processional Way. On the approach of His Excellency the Honour Guard present arms.

The processions reform behind His Excellency in reverse order to that in which they left the Royal Chapel so that the Deputy Chief Constable, followed by the two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary who led the first procession, bring up the rear.

Persons sitting in the enclosures at the foot of the Hill stand when His Excellency arrives at the Hill.

ON TYNWALD HILL

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, the President of Tynwald, the Lord Bishop of Sodor and Man, the Attorney General, the Chief Minister and Members of the Legislative Council, the Clerk of the Legislative Council, the Persons in attendance, the Sword Bearer and the Private Secretary to His Excellency will occupy the top tier; the Speaker, Members and Secretary of the House of Keys together with their Chaplain will be accommodated on the next tier; the High Bailiff, the Representative of the Commission of the Peace, the Chief Registrar, the Mayor of Douglas, the Chairmen of the Town and Village Commissioners, the Archdeacon, the Vicar General, the Clergy, the Roman Catholic Dean, the representatives of the Free Churches, the Salvation Army and the Chief Constable will occupy the tier below.

The First Deemster sits at the place appointed on the south side of the Hill for the promulgation of the laws in English and the Second Deemster sits in the corresponding position on the north side of the Hill for the reading in Manx. The Deputy Deemster, Yn Lhaihder, the Captains of the Parishes, the Coroners and the Deputy Chief Constable sit on the lowest tier.

When His Excellency is ready and the officials have taken up their positions on the Hill:

All stand

THE ROYAL ANTHEM

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God Save the Queen.
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God Save the Queen.

All sit

His Excellency says:

Learned First Deemster, direct the Court to be fenced.

The First Deemster then says:

Coroner of Glenfaba Sheading and Yn Lhaihder, fence the Court.

The Coroner of Glenfaba Sheading fences the Court saying:

I fence this Court in the name of our Most Gracious Sovereign Lady The Queen. I charge that no person do quarrel, brawl or make any disturbance and that all persons do answer their names when called. I charge this audience to witness this Court is fenced. I charge this audience to witness this Court is fenced. I charge this whole audience to bear witness this Court is now fenced.

Yn Lhaihder immediately thereafter fences the Court in the Manx language:

Ta mee cur yn Whaiyl shoh fo harey ayns ennym Chiarn Vannin, nagh jean peiagh erbee troiddey, baghyrt ny jannoo boirany's erbee, as dy jean dy chooilley pheiaagh freggyrt tra vees eh er ny eam. Ta mee cur recortys er y clane eanish shoh dy vel yn Whaiyl shoh nishtag fo harey.

The First Deemster then says:

Incoming Coroners, take the oath in ancient form to execute your offices for the ensuing year, and receive your staves of office from the hands of His Excellency. The Coroners elect then proceed up the Hill in the following order:

- Coroner of Glenfaba and Michael
- Coroner of Ayre and Garff
- Coroner of Middle
- Coroner of Rushen

They occupy the step below the top step and, when all four are in position on bended knee, take the following oath, administered by the First Deemster:

By that book and by the holy contents thereof and by the wonderful works that God hath miraculously wrought in heaven above and in the earth beneath in six days and seven nights, you shall, without respect of favour or friendship, love or gain, consanguinity or affinity, envy or malice, well and truly execute the office of Coroner for each Shreading to which you have been appointed for the ensuing year. So help you God.

The Coroners receive their staves of office from His Excellency and then return to their places at the foot of the Hill. A Messenger removes the kneeling mats.

His Excellency then says:

Learned Deemsters, I exhort you to proclaim to the people in ancient form such laws as have been enacted during the past year and which have received the Royal Assent.

An abstract of the laws is set out at the end of this booklet.

The First Deemster says:

Has Your Excellency any further commands?

His Excellency says:

If any persons wish to present a Petition let them now come forward.

If there be any Petitions for Redress they are presented in due form to the Clerk of Tynwald at the foot of the Hill. The Clerk of Tynwald conveys any Petitions for Redress to His Excellency.

His Excellency, having been handed the Petitions, says:

I shall refer these Petitions to the Standing Orders Committee of Tynwald who will report thereon at their earliest convenience.

After the Petitioners have withdrawn to the north of the Hill, a fanfare is sounded and the troops are called to attention in turn from Tynwald Hill to the Royal Chapel.

All stand and sing:

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O land of our birth,
O gem of God's earth,
O Island so strong and so fair;
Built firm as Barrool,
Thy throne of Home Rule,
Makes us free as thy sweet mountain air.

His Excellency then says:

This concludes the proceedings on Tynwald Hill. There will now be a sitting of Tynwald Court in the Royal Chapel of St John's. On behalf of myself, the Learned Deemsters, the Captains of the Parishes and others here assembled, I am pleased to accept the invitation of the President of Tynwald to be present at the sitting of Tynwald Court and to witness the Captioning of the Acts just promulgated.

PROCESSIONS FROM TYNWALD HILL

The Deputy Chief Constable calls the processions from the Hill which on clearing the detachments halt and align themselves on either side of the path to enable His Excellency, preceded by the Sword of State to pass. The Deputy Chief Constable is the last person to leave the Hill and brings up the rear of the processions accompanied by the Military Liaison Officer. He is immediately followed by the two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary who led the first procession.

The first procession:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary
- The Coroners
- The Senior Salvation Army Officer
- The Ministers of the Free Churches
- The Chairman of the Isle of Man District of the Methodist Church

- The Captains of the Parishes
- Yn Lhaihder
- The High Bailiff
- The Chief Secretary
- The Chief Constable

The second procession:

- The Members of the Legislative Council
- The Attorney General
- The Lord Bishop
- Two Messengers of the House of Keys
- The Chaplain of the House of Keys
- The Clerk of Tynwald, Secretary of the House of Keys and Counsel to the Speaker
- The Members of the House of Keys
- The Chief Minister
- The Speaker of the House of Keys
- One Messenger of the House of Keys
- The Deputy Deemster
- The Second Deemster
- The First Deemster and Clerk of the Rolls
- The Clerk of the Legislative Council
- Two Gardyn Coadee
- One Messenger of the Legislative Council
- The President of Tynwald

The third procession, which proceeds to the Robing Room:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (from the foot of the Hill)
- Trumpeters (from the foot of the Hill)
- The Sword of State
- His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor
- The Private Secretary to the Lieutenant Governor
- The Surgeon to the Household
- The Manx Flag immediately follows the Surgeon from the foot of the Hill

The following persons from the Second Procession then join the third procession to the Robing Room:

- The President of Tynwald
- One Messenger of the Legislative Council
- Two Gardyn Coadee
- The Clerk of the Legislative Council
- The First Deemster and Clerk of the Rolls
- The Second Deemster
- The Deputy Deemster

The Speaker of the House of Keys, preceded by a Messenger of the House of Keys, leads all the remainder of the processions into the Chapel by the West Door.

Persons holding tickets for the Royal Chapel proceed from their places in the enclosure at Tynwald Hill to their seats in the Chapel, at the direction of the ushers. Those seated on the stands may not leave their places until the processions have re-entered the Royal Chapel, and then only on the instructions of the officials.

SITTING OF THE COURT OF TYNWALD

The Captioning of the Acts

The passage from the Robing Room to the south door of the Chapel is meanwhile cleared by police officers, and when Tynwald Court has assembled in the Chapel and the invited guests are in their places, the following procession moves from the Robing Room into the Chapel:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (to the South Door)
- Two Gardyn Coadee (who will stand either side of the communion rail)
- One Messenger of the Legislative Council
- The Manx Flag (to the South Door)
- The President of Tynwald
- The Clerk of the Legislative Council

All stand as the President of Tynwald enters the Chapel:

The President of Tynwald then says:

Honourable Members, I have invited His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, His Honour the Deputy Governor, First Deemster and Clerk of the Rolls, His Honour the Second Deemster and His Honour the Deputy Deemster to be present to witness this sitting of the Court, and I call upon the Clerk of Tynwald to escort them to their places.

All remain standing as His Excellency enters the Royal Chapel accompanied by the Deemsters:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (to the South Door)
- Trumpeters (to the South Door)
- The Deputy Deemster
- The Second Deemster
- The First Deemster and Clerk of the Rolls
- The Sword of State

The President (left) and the Speaker (right) Captioning the Acts.

- His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor
- The Private Secretary to the Lieutenant Governor
- The Surgeon to the Household

His Excellency and the Deemsters take their seats behind the Bar of the Court: once they are seated, the Gardyn Coadee close the Bar of the Court and the Sword of State is placed before the President.

All sit

The President of Tynwald says:

Members of the Council, Mr Speaker and Members of the House of Keys, we shall now caption the Acts just promulgated on Tynwald Hill.

The President of Tynwald is handed the Acts promulgated to be certified. Once he has signed, they will be taken by a Tynwald Messenger to the Speaker of the House of Keys for signature.

Once the signing process is complete the President of Tynwald will award the Tynwald Honour to Mr Ian Qualtrough. The Tynwald Honour is the highest award that Tynwald can bestow. It is given only to someone who has made an outstanding, life long and sacrificial contribution to Manx life.

Mr President then says:

Members of the Council, Mr Speaker and Members of the House of Keys that concludes the business of the Court. The Court will now stand adjourned to 14th July 2009 at 10.30 am in Douglas. I now call upon Hon Members to be upstanding for the departure of His Excellency and his party.

All stand

The Gardyn Coadee open the Bar of the Court. His Excellency, accompanied by the Deemsters, leave the Royal Chapel proceeding to the Robing Room by the South Door:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (from the South Door)

- Trumpeters (from the South Door)
- The Sword of State
- His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor
- The Private Secretary to The Lieutenant Governor
- The Surgeon to the Household.
- The First Deemster and Clerk of the Rolls
- The Second Deemster
- The Deputy Deemster

The President of Tynwald says:

The Council will now retire and Members of the House of Keys will remain to transact such business as Mr Speaker may put before them.

The President of Tynwald and the Members of the Legislative Council leave the Chapel and proceed to the Robing Room by the South Door in the following order:

- Two Sergeants of the Isle of Man Constabulary (from the South Door)
- The Manx Flag (from the South Door)
- The President of Tynwald
- One Messenger of the Legislative Council
- Two Gardyn Coadee
- The Clerk to the Legislative Council
- The Lord Bishop
- The Attorney General
- The other Members of the Legislative Council
- One Messenger of the Legislative Council

All sit

SITTING OF THE HOUSE OF KEYS

The following business is taken:

The Deputy Speaker moves:

That all Bills and other business before the House remaining unfinished at this date be suspended and continued at the same stage to the first meeting of the House in the next legislative year.

The Speaker asks for a Seconder (traditionally a long serving Member).

A vote is taken and the business is concluded.

Mr Speaker will say: Honourable Members, that concludes the business before the House. The House will now stand adjourned to 10.30 am in Tynwald Court in Douglas on 14th July 2009.

All stand

At the conclusion of the Sitting of the House of Keys the following persons leave the Royal Chapel by the South Door:

- One Messenger of the House of Keys
- The Chaplain of the House of Keys
- The Clerk of Tynwald
- Secretary of the House of Keys and Counsel to the Speaker
- The Members of the House of Keys
- The Chief Minister
- The Speaker of the House of Keys
- One Messenger of the House of Keys

They line each side of the route to the Robing Room to enable the Speaker to proceed through their ranks to the Robing Room.

All sit until directed by an Usher to leave

Lady Haddacks and the official guests leave the Royal Chapel via the South Door.

Those persons remaining in the Royal Chapel leave by the West Door.

Official photograph to be taken.

Subsequent to the photograph:-

- The Sword Bearer
- His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor
- The Manx flag
- The President of Tynwald
- The Speaker of the House of Keys

all move to the road side of the Lych Gate and halt.

Upon signal from the Military Liaison Office, the Honour Guard present Arms for the Royal Salute and National Anthem.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor bids farewell to The President of Tynwald and The Speaker of the House of Keys. His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and his party then depart.

Roger Phillips
Clerk of Tynwald
